Snowflakes

Snowflakes, snowflakes
Twirl around
Snowflakes, snowflakes
Touch the ground
Snowflakes, snowflakes
Land on my nose
Snowflakes, snowflakes
Freeze my toes
Snowflakes, snowflakes
In the air
Snowflakes, snowflakes
Everywhere!

'Twas the Night Before Christmas

by Clement Clarke Moore

'Twas the night before Christmas,
when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.

The stockings were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that St Nicholas soon would be there.

The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads.

And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap,
Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap.

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.

Away to the window I flew like a flash,
Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow
Gave the lustre of mid-day to objects below.
When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,
But a miniature sleigh, and eight tinny reindeer.

You're In My Heart This Christmas

By Kelly Roper

Even though this Christmas
We must spend apart,
You're still right here with me,
Because I keep you in my heart.
So picture me there beside you
Sitting by the twinkling tree,
And rest assured next Christmas
You'll truly be spending it with me.

Candy Stick

I took a lick
Of a candy stick
And oh, it did taste yummy
It used to be on The Christmas tree
And now it's in my tummy.
